CONFERENCE PRESENTERS

Dr. Aaron Blight, EdD

Dr. Aaron Blight has spent more than 20 years in healthcare administration, including as a national healthcare policymaker, homecare provider, care scholar and professional speaker. He is on the Advisory Board for the Shenandoah Area Agency on Aging in Virginia and teaches classes in Aging & Public Health as well as Healthcare Management at Shenandoah University. He will offer a presentation rooted in evidence-based research drawing upon studies from gerontology, nursing, psychology and sociology.

Ethan J. Huizenga, J.D.

Ethan Huizenga is an elder law and estate planning attorney practicing with a regional practice based in Orange City for more than 10 years. Ethan is licensed to practice in Iowa, South Dakota, and Missouri, and leverages his memberships in those state bar associations as well as the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys to advocate for the needs of seniors nationwide.

Ethan has lived through the challenges that come with having aging loved ones. His presentation, “Estate Planning Crash Course for Caregivers,” will touch on issues affecting both caregivers and the people they care for.

Identified Gap

Without knowing and understanding the social and relational aspects of care, professionals are less sensitive to the social dynamics inherent in caregiving.

Educational Objectives

After attending this conference, participants will be able to:

1. Share and discuss their knowledge about caregiving as a phenomenon of social science.
2. Describe and explain the framework for understanding the social dimensions of care.
3. Incorporate and demonstrate enhanced leadership skills and abilities inside an organization.
4. Demonstrate an increased ability to relate to co-workers, patients and family members.

Target Audience: Nurses, Social Workers, other healthcare professionals and caregivers.

Continuing Education Credit

Cost: Contact hours certificate fee is $15 payable by attendee upon registration.

**This fee is not covered by Elderbridge Agency on Aging.*

Credit: 2.0 Contact hours will be awarded for the AM portion of this program by IBON Provider #22 DMACC. Full attendance (until noon) is required, no partial credit will be awarded.

The number of contact hours awarded is based on a 60-minute education hour.
